General Information and datasheet (Solaray)

Arjuna
Description:	Arjuna Arjuna is a popular herb known for the benefits for cardiovascular health by relieving the fluid accumulated in ankles and legs due to the heart not circulating properly. This herb is used to treat hemorrhages, diarrhea, skin problems and fractures. Arjuna strengthens blood vessels and encourages antioxidant activity. This herb also helps improve cardiac muscles function and pumping activity in the heart. Arjuna should be considered to take for congestive heart failure after consulting a physician. If you are experiencing water swelling in the legs and arms, please consult your health care provider because this is largely due to cardiovascular disease or kidney problems.
