Other Details of this product. This product is considered to be the most "yang" (warming, stimulating) ginseng and contains three more ginsenosides than others. It is ideal for the most "yin" type of people including many senior citizens and those weakened by illness. Smaller amounts of the red ginseng can achieve the same results as larger quantities of the white ginseng. To account for this and its costliness, Imperial Elixir product capsules contain 300 mg of pure authentic powder purchased from the Korean T and Ginseng Corp.

This product Is Best For Athletic Performance, Libido And Erectile Dysfunction.
